Lt. Governor Garamendi Listens to Northridge's Concerns During CSU Listening Tour Stop

Before a packed audience at California State University Northridge, Lt. Governor John Garamendi reiterated his commitment to maintaining funding for the UC and CSU systems while listening to students, professors, university representatives, business and labor leaders, and community members express their concerns.